

BioCareer Pathway for Quality Control Inspector

Recent Graduates

- University bachelor's degree in scientific field (i.e., chemistry)

Entry-level

Quality Control Inspector

3-5 Years

Senior Quality Control Inspector

5-10 Years

Quality Control Manager
(Usually requires an advanced degree)

Career Change

From a Good Manufacturing Practices (GMP)-regulated industry. Experience in sampling, manufacturing and laboratory procedures is an asset.

Job Functions

(You may be responsible for more than one)

- Inspect materials coming into manufacturing facility and equipment used for testing and manufacturing
- Test samples to ensure materials meet specifications throughout production process
- Analyze test and measurement data and assist with monitoring and compliance activities
- Research new technologies, processes, regulations and legislation

Actual job titles may vary slightly between organizations.