

Cleanroom Ready Certification Pathway

Critical skills for cleanroom readiness, ensuring compliance and operational excellence in controlled environments.

Why Certification

Identified, via research, the need for a standardized assessment for cleanroom readiness

Defined the standard with industry experts

Validated standard with industry

Developed and Published a National Skills Standard for Cleanroom Readiness

What Contributed to Certification

Create a draft of practical and knowledge assessments (NSS) with industry

Validate draft assessments with industry

Conduct trial of assessments

Work with Training Providers to align training programs with National Skills Standards (NSS)

Who Can be Certified

Bio-manufacturing talent

How Skills Are Certified?

Apply to certification

Take knowledge assessment

Demonstrate practical skills in cleanroom or digital twin

When is Certification Issued

Successful completion of both knowledge and practical assessments

Certification badge
"Certified Cleanroom Ready"

